

Time limits for national insurance contributions and employer statements (2/30/18)

On 29 May 2018 the Cabinet of Ministers debated proposals for amending the National Social Insurance (NSI) Act. We have informed our MindLink subscribers that new rules on tax payment procedures are to be adopted from 2021, including a single tax account. This article explores what we see as key proposals, payment procedures, and time limits for filing employer statements.
