

Labour Act amended: daily allowances on business trips 3/5/21

The Labour Act has been amended with effect from 5 January 2021 to adopt requirements of relevant EU directives. The new rules affect foreign employers posting employees to work in Latvia and Latvian employers posting staff to work abroad, as well as temporary employment agencies. The amendments strengthen the definition of a “posting” and the rules companies must follow when posting their workers. This article also explores key changes to daily allowances on business trips.
