

Proposed changes to labour taxation: what taxpayers need to know 2/41/24

Following a lively public debate about revising the Latvian system of labour taxation to make it more competitive in the Baltic region, the Ministry of Finance has put together and on 26 September 2024 presented proposals for amending the Personal Income Tax (PIT) Act. The proposals make several changes to PIT treatment, affecting the rates, personal allowances and other core principles of tax treatment. This article explores key changes to labour taxation affecting taxpayers from next year.
