

Higher minimum salary payable to foreign nationals employed in Latvia (2/16/20)

To primarily provide employment to Latvian residents, employers wishing to hire third-country nationals are required by Latvian law to meet various criteria, including adequate funding for the foreign worker to be employed in Latvia. Carrying out these statutory obligations permits an employer to hire a foreign worker holding a visa or a work/residence permit. This article explores some of the changes to the minimum pay applicable from 1 April 2020.
