

Global mobility

PwC provides general information about -

1. why tax resident status is important and how it is determined;
2. when you are liable to file a Latvian annual income tax return and when you can do so voluntarily;
3. social security arrangements.

More details relevant to your particular case are included in the briefing notes. This guidance aims to help you better understand some topics that might become important to you at some point.

International tax matters (inbound to Latvia)

International tax matters (outbound from Latvia)