

Regional Administrative Court on compensation for loss and non-pecuniary damages resulting from incorrect tax assessment 2/32/22

On 19 July 2022 the Regional Administrative Court ruled on a case in which a taxpayer sought compensation for a loss and non-pecuniary damages resulting from an unlawful audit decision issued by the State Revenue Service (SRS) and overturned by the court. This article explores what losses (expenses) the court considers reimbursable and what the court evaluates in determining whether particular expense items can be reimbursed.
