

PwC podcast: How long-term construction or installation projects create permanent establishments 1/22/24

PwC tax director
Vita Sakne

PwC tax department senior consultant
Elizabete Lizete Lapsina

Today's business environment sees many companies entering into contracts with foreign partners that often involve the agreed work being carried out abroad.

PwC Latvia tax director Vita Sakne and senior associate Elizabete Lizete Lapsina explain the circumstances and issues arising when a company doing a long-term construction or installation project across several jurisdictions may be liable to register a permanent establishment.

Watch Episode 40