

Proposals to amend rules on state aid for startups 2/48/24

October 27 was the last day of a public consultation on proposals the Ministry of Economy (MOE) has drawn up for amending the State Aid for Startup Operations Act. The proposals delete references to the de minimis aid rule and authorise the MOE to enter into participation agreements with organisations representing startups to simplify the process of awarding EUR 400,000 in state aid. This article explores what we see as key changes.
